NOZAWAONSEN, JAPAN *

Open wide and say Nozawa.

Nozawa Onsen has one of the best village atmospheres of any Ski Resorts in Japan. The town is steeped in history and is really just a quiet and charming farming community. This translates into delicious fresh local produce and some amazing eating delights.

As all the venues cater to the locals all year round the prices are very good value all the time. You can easily get a terrific meal in many places for less than 1000 yen. So can afford to eat out every night and there are some unique and memorable splurges too.

Along with the great restaurants on the mountain there are far too many eating-places and quaint bars in Nozawa to mention here, but we would like to introduce you to a few of our favourites. Some are on the map and a few we try and keep a bit secret just for our guests, so be sure to ask our staff for their suggestions – we'll be delighted to share.

The amazing skiing, breathtaking scenery and relaxing hot springs are not the only reason to visit Nozawa Onsen If you are a foodie then could come to Nozawa just to give your taste buds an adventure. Something unique to Nozawa is cooking in the Onsens be sure to try an Onsen Egg or corn while here. Other specialties on the main street Oyu Dori are the Oyaki or steamed buns and Onsen Manju in the wooden boxes perfect on a cold day to warm the hands!

Of course you are welcome in any of the many restaurants around the village so get out and explore. Some places may appear closed so don't be shy they will be happy to see you. Most places have one night a week off which varies so if you miss it one night try again the next.

The menus are in English and Japanese and the restaurants should have a copy too to help make it easier for you.

If feel like a night in home delivery or "Demai" is a great option as they will deliver to the door of the Lodge in the authentic bowls on the back of a scooter! There are also a few places like Bun Bun that do a special Suki Yaki feast just need to book a day in advance. Just ask our staff for assistance.

Here are couple of phrases that may help with your dining experience:

Please Kudasai Thank You Arigatou Bon Apetit Ittadakimasu Delicious 0ishii Food Tabemono Drink Nomimono Hitotsu One Futatsu Two Three Mitsu

At the end of the meal it is always polite to say - Gochisosama. Doesn't translate very well so you will just have to trust us on that one!!!

A guide to Eating Nozawa Onsen Restaurants

Lots of amazing Restaurants in Nozawa Onsen. How about some Korean BBQ at Banri?

"Oishii" is the Japanese word for delicious and there is a lot of oishii options to eat out in our small village. For a population of less than 4000 people we have around 30 restaurants in the village and another 20 on the mountain! Eating Nozawa Onsen Restaurants is a pleasure.

Here is a handy PDF with some great selections:

http://www.nozawaholidays.com/wp-content/uploads/2011/09/Restaurant-Guide-Final.pdf

So make sure you ski hard and get nice and hungry.

Despite all the eating options it can get hard to get a feed at certain times especially in the week January month!

A few hints that may help to make sure you fuel up when Eating Nozawa Onsen Restaurants:

- 1. Get in Early! Most people eat around 7pm so get in by 6pm and beat the rush.
- 2. Book ahead. When you are out eating book your next night at a restaurant of choice. The owners like a face to face confirmation. NB don't cancel or now show it is a quick way to lose face!
- 3. Get off the main drag! Lots of people wander the main Oyu Doru Street and so the restaurants there get crowded. Explore a little off the beaten track and you will be rewarded.
- 4. Lights are on somebody is home. It is cold outside so naturally most places will hav ethier doors closed. But if the lights are on and especially if there is a red lantern out front then they are open for business so don't be shy to go in.
- 5. Some of the lodges will cook dinners just ask, they can be amazing meals!

Hope this helps. Up until the season starts in a few weeks we will try and introduce many of the restaurants and bars too you and will update our above Restaurant guide before the season too so please stay tuned.

Map Reference: : E5 Opposite Haus St. Anton and upstairs. Next door to a small supermarket.

Type of Food

Italian restaurant specialising in pizza.

The Plug

A cool spot in Nozawa up above the bustle of the Oyu-Dori main street.

This is somewhere nice to go to change it up from Japanese style food if you're looking for something a bit more like home.

The atmosphere is fairly modern yet warm and the staff are always smiling and having a laugh. with a decent selection of food, beer on tap and a number of other drinks, there will certainly be something to fill you up.

Stop by Haus St. Anton afterwards for an Apple Oyaki steamed dumpling and your night will be complete.

House Specialty

The pizzas change from time to time so give one of the new ones a try, otherwise the Margherita is hard to beat.

Restaurant - Buna

Location: On the right side of Paradise slope, the second restaurant that looks like a glass hexagon with a pointy roof.

Type of Food

Both Japanese and western style.

The Plug

Best view on the slopes! Enjoy your meal whilst surrounded by a 360 degree view of Paradise. Buna has a warm, family atmosphere that is the perfect place for a rest during a big day on the slopes.

House Specialty

Curry & Naan Bread is famous amongst the locals and our guests. Can't go wrong!

We recommend it with a side of rice and also one of their famous hot chocolates with whipped cream. Nothing beats it.

Average Price of a Meal 1100 Yen

Restaurant The Corner Steakhouse

Map Reference: E5 A bit lower down from the main street next to Wanryu Ramen.

Type of Food

Genuine burgers, chips and steak.

The Plug

Amongst all the fantastic Japanese cuisine that Nozawa Onsen has to offer, there are also some great western styled restaurants around.

Although a little pricier than some places, The Corner Steakhouse cooks quality burgers and steaks that will be as satisfying as a relaxing Onsen after a long day on the slopes.

They cook a few different styles of burgers all which come with hot chips, and the steaks are sure to be a treat if you choose to indulge.

There is also an upstairs Cigar bar open from 10pm for something different.

House Specialty

The avocado cheeseburger is delicious, and they know how to cook a mean steak too.

Average Price of a Meal

Burgers from 1300 Yen, steaks from 1500 Yen

Restaurant - Daimon Soba

Location: E5

Just off the main street Oyu Dori and easy to find directly opposite the Liquor Shop in the centre of town.

Type of Food Soba Buck Wheat Noodles

The Plug

The family at Daimon is 3rd Generation Soba Makers, and it is a real art.

It is a family business with husband and wife and all the kids working together. Great value and healthy sumptuous meals.

Lots of local specialties to stimulate your interest.

Keiko san the owner is also a master at the Japanese Art of Shuji - writing Japanese Characters. She can write your name in Kanji and have it printed on a T-shirt to take home as long as you have a few days. Great memory of your trip to Nozawa.

Her son is a Champion Ski Jumper you can see his big jump skis in the back.

House Specialty

My favourite is the Nameko Soba with Mushrooms.

Average Price of a Meal 800 Yen

Day Off

One of the few places that almost never closes.

Restaurant - Fortissimo

Map Reference: D6

Just up from the post office toward the main street.

Type of Food

Japanese western mix, set meals.

Restaurant - Hamacho Sushi

Map Reference: D5

Next door to Wanryu and The Corner Steakhouse. 50 metres down the road opposite the alcohol shop.

Type of Food

Sushi and Sushimi

The Plug

Sushi, what usually comes to mind when one thinks of Japanese cuisine. There is far more to Japanese food than Sushi, but a trip to Japan would just not be complete without it.

Hamacho (not to be confused with Himecho, a karaoke bar which we'll discuss on another ocassion) does some of the best Sushi and Sushimi, with a chef who takes a great deal of pride in his work. He's always smiling and will do his best to have a chat in Japanese/English.

The atmosphere is warm and welcoming, offering both bar seating and Tatami mat seating.

The restaurant is fairly small and doesn't take bookings, so it's best to pick a quieter day.

House Specialty

Sitting at the bar to see him preparing the Sushi! You can't go wrong with any of the dishes.

Average Price of a Meal 1500 Yen

Restaurant - Sakai

Location: G5

Take a right turn off the main street when walking towards the grand O-yu Onsen and walk uphill a few hundred meters.

Type of Food

Izakaya Japanese dining

The Plug

Tucked away from the busier main street, Sakai is a fantastic little spot for a meal. With a menu that keeps on going, you won't have a hard time finding something appealling.

The staff are very welcoming, speaking both Japanese and English. Sakai has an authentic Japanese feel with traditional art, attire, and tatami mat seating, as well as tables and a bar if that's more to your preference.

There will likely be some foods you've never tried, so don't be afraid to order a couple of new dishes and surprise yourself!

Average Price of a Dish 800 Yen

Restaurant -Sparena-Restaurant Shantei

Map Reference: E9 In the Sparena convention center and hot spring complex.

Type of Food

Steak, pizza, pasta, rice and noodle dishes.

The Plug

More cafeteria style than restaurant yet with really tasty, good value food, Shantei has very large dining area, self service ticket machines for easy ordering, great pizzas, and is just above the sparena onsens and outside hot swimming pool. This makes it an easy option for families and big groups during peak season.

Closes earlier than most restaurants so get in before 7pm, and stay for an onsen after. Some pre-order course meals will include and onsen deal.

House Specialty

Grilled steak, hand made pizzas.

Average Price of a Dish 600-1300 Yen

Restaurant - Tonkichi

Map Reference: C10

Practically opposite Villa Nozawa!

Type of Food

Restaurant - Wagyu-Tei

Map Reference: E6 On the main street Oyu Dori right next to the Stay Bar on the second floor.

Type of Food

Japanese style Hot Pots mainly focusing on meat which you cook yourself in a boiling broth.

The Plug

Just in it's second season Wagyu-tei has already proven to be very popular as is a great meal to enjoy with family or friends. Fairly spacious restaurant overlooking the main street, also has an adjoining bar where you can grab a drink before your dinner. Run by Tatsumi san and his friendly team. He also owns Heaven Karaoke so may talk you going to sing for your dinner.

House Specialty

As discussed the Sukiyaki and Shyabu Shyabu hot pots. The main difference being the Sukiyaki is a sweeter broth of Soy Sauce, Sugar and Miren. The Shaybu Shaybu is a cleaner water with dipping sauces. Great with a beer or a glass of sake!

Average Price of a Dish From 2800 Yen (a big meal)

Restaurant - Wakagiri

Map Reference: E6

One of the first you come to when heading into town from Lodge Nagano, Central, or Villa Nozawa. It is down a little lane way on the right in an A frame shaped entrance.

Type of Food

Japanese Te Shoku or Meal with different bowls and Sushi.

The Plug

This is often a great place to start when you first get to town.

It is a Large place with a good English menu and great selection.

The staff are all great especially their little 3 year old, the owners son, who will give you a greeting when you come in.

House Specialty

Fried Squid Legs and Katsu Pork Fillet.

Average Price of a Meal 900 Yen

Restaurant - Wanryu Ramen

Map Reference: D5

Down the road opposite the bottle shop.

Type of Food

Ramen noodles and Gyoza Dumplings.

The Plug

Ramen is traditionally a Chinese style noodle which the Japanese have adopted as their own and perfected.

It is usually noodles with vegetables and meat served with a hot soup with a base flavour of Salt, Miso or Soya Sauce.

The restaurant is cosy and warm with lively red colors and a relaxed feel. Prices are really cheap for a hearty meal.

Ramen is perfect after a hard days skiing and then an Onsen. Make sure you try the Gyoza.

Best enjoyed with a cold beer!!

Misui san the chef always has a smile so you can expect to feel welcomed and looked after here.

House Specialty

Miso Ramen and a serve of Gyoza is hard to beat.

House Specialty Chicken Yakitori

Average Price of a Dish 500 Yen

Restaurant - Yonetarou

Map Reference: F6 Near Matsuba Onsen, on the opposite side of the road on the corner.

Type of Food

Ramen, Gyoza, soups, rice dishes.

The Plug

Head this way for some fantastic Japanese cuisine in a small cosy restaurant with style.

This place is hardly noticeable as a restaurant, though it's full of good food and good atmosphere. They have a couple of tables and bar seating, so it may be harder to get a table at busier times, but if you get the chance it's definitely worth a visit. The Ramen serves are plentiful and some of the best I've tried in Nozawa. Upon arriving, you'll be served a quick appetiser of veggies, tofu, and bamboo shoots, which are delicious.

We recommend ordering sake straight from the barrel to go with it.

House Specialty

The spicy pork and spring onion ramen was divine. As for drinks, a box of sake from the barrel goes down nicely.

Average Price of a Dish 500-1000 Yen

Restaurant - Yoshimi Soba

Just next to Asagama no yu Onsen on the walk up to Ogama Cooking onsen. There are 4 restaurants along that road and all good so if miss one try the next.

Type of Food

Soba (Buckwheat Noodles), Udon Noodles, Donburi Rice Dishes etc.

The Plua

You could be mistaking for thinking you have just walked into a Sumo training restaurant.

The owner Yamazaki san is one of the biggest Japanese guys in the village.

A true gentle giant and a great chef.

The family run business has some great Japanese cuisine, with rice dishes and the healthy Soba " Buckwheat Noodles" and lots more.

The place is beautiful inside and lots of interesting eats.

There is an onsen right next door too so make it a double.

House Specialty

Soba Noodles for sure but they have some interesting treats too like the Wasp Sake, Nozawa Na, Nameko Dofu a great vego meal. Just ask for a surprise

Type of Food Coffee, cakes, and light lunches.

The Plug

A great little cafe in town. Those who know it love it, and those who don't will wish they had discovered it sooner.

Napa Cafe serves delicious homemade cakes, light lunches, and espresso coffee.

It's a little bit out of the way and hidden but not hard to find if you know where to go. With one of the cosiest atmospheres in Nozawa, it's a great place to go on a gloomy day when the skis and boards will be staying in the gear room.

You'll be served by the lovely owners and you'll notice they have a strong liking towards anything related to cats!

The Plug

Set right in the heart of the main street, This little gem is very popular amongst locals and foreigners alike. Their in house chef, Ken Katagiri, creates imaginative dishes, blending European and Japanese cuisine.

If you're just craving a quick snack, they serve small bites, ice cream and coffee, though the real deal-breaker is the Oyaki dumplings with plenty of fillings to choose from, which are freshly cooked just outside on the main street. They also sell small gifts, specialising in local honeys and jams.

You will need to book for the restaurant, otherwise Oyaki and smaller bites are served all day long.

Type of Bar

Bourbon Bar, Cool Vibe and smooth tunes, sometimes live music.

The Plug

There are quite a number of cool bars in Nozawa now but this is one of the originals and still the best!

Owned by Kiku and Yumiko two of the nicest people you will ever meet. They used to live in Canada and when you walk inside you will think they brought half of Canada home with them. Kiku is a muso and a big fan of Jackson Browne -The bar gets its name from Browne's song "Stay". The place prides itself on groovy music and a great range of drinks.

You can also get food here, usually a good place for a western fix or late night dessert.

There is a full band set up in the corner so feel free to belt out a tune if your heart desires. Otherwise if you are lucky Kiku will do you a version of Eric Clapton's "Wonderful Tonight".

Great atmosphere and you will find you just want to stay a little bit longer.....
